Position	Major Gifts Officer
Department	Philanthropy
FLSA Status	Full Time, Exempt
Reports To	Vice President for Philanthropy
Location	The position is located in Tucson, Arizona. As a place-based organization, the selected candidate is expected to reside in Southern Arizona.
Organization Profile	Founded in 1980, the Community Foundation for Southern Arizona has supported Southern Arizona with over $215 million in grants and scholarships, stewarding the philanthropic legacy of our community's generous donors and increasing the breadth and depth of resources available to nonprofit organizations in our region.
	The impact we make is a collective one, with funds held by individuals, families, and businesses with unique interests, ideas, and passions. Our work touches every aspect of daily life, including animal welfare, arts and culture, community development, education, environment, health and human services, and more.
	In addition to the support provided to Southern Arizona nonprofits through donor- advised grants and competitive grantmaking, CFSA also partners with nonprofits through its Center for Healthy Nonprofits and offers beautiful and affordable office, meeting, and event space at its centrally located Community Foundation Campus.
Position Purpose & Overview	The Major Gifts Officer is responsible for building development activities and major gifts fundraising at CFSA by cultivating and soliciting prospective donors (individuals, families, foundations, corporations, and donor advised funds).
	This position will work within the Philanthropy Department to support all fund development and implementation of donor acquisition strategies, as well as ensure long-term engagement through donor stewardship and recognition. This position is also responsible to serve as primary strategist and partner to a portfolio of donors from first contact through legacy giving.
Duties &	DEVELOPMENT ACTIVITIES AND MAJOR GIFTS FUNDRAISING
Responsibilities	 Build and sustain a personal portfolio of donors and prospects with significant giving capacity by cultivating existing and new relationships with donors directly and through professional advisor referrals. Take timely and strategic steps in moving prospects through the major gift cycle of identification, qualification, cultivation, solicitation, and stewardship. Utilizing data and feedback to refine and evaluate strategies for donor cultivation and engagement, report regularly to the VP for Philanthropy on progress toward goals. Develop and implement customized engagement plans for donors. Provide prospects and donors with options for philanthropy, responsive to their needs and readiness, including donor-advised funds, designated funds, field of interest impact funds, civic leadership fund, unrestricted funds, administrative endowment, legacy funds, and other fund types and giving vehicles and strategies.

- Support targeted campaigns to raise funds and build out activities to drive support to CFSA's Impact Funds. Manage and lead specific fundraising projects pertaining to areas of focus for the organization.
- Working in conjunction with marketing and communications services staff, initiate and oversee the development of proposals and written material in support of specific major gift fundraising initiatives.
- Strategically leverage events, communication, and other tools to engage and cultivate donors.

KNOWLEDGE AND RELATIONSHIPS

- As a team member and relationship-builder, contribute to making CFSA an incredible place to work and building our culture of inclusion, diversity, equity, access (IDEA), and continuous improvement
- Become a resource for assisting donors with gifts of assets, drawing on expertise at CFSA and CFSA Properties as well as outside expertise as needed.
- Develop and maintain a thorough working knowledge of the organization's vision and philanthropic priorities to effectively present the case to prospects and donors.
- Develop positive working relationships with professional advisors, earn trust for client referrals.
- Recruit, organize, train, and work with volunteers as needed in support of fundraising and closely related activities.
- Serve as a member of the overall philanthropy team by collaborating with colleagues across disciplines on donor strategies.
- Continue to develop professional skills and knowledge of major gifts fundraising, gift planning, gifts of complex assets, endowment fundraising, family foundation conversions, and other relevant areas. Identify and share best practices and innovative ideas from and with community foundation peers and beyond.

ORGANIZATIONAL ADMINISTRATION AND ACTIVITIES

- Develop an annual plan of work with the philanthropic team, including specific fundraising, prospect development, and programmatic goals with an emphasis on achieving established standards and metrics for the position.
- Prepare reports and other required information as requested.
- Complete and file timely reports. Maintains accurate and relevant records in the donor database.
- Attend organizational events, as well as external functions as recommended.
- Implement other specific assignments and projects, as directed.
- Participate in other duties, as assigned.
- Model CFSA's culture with behaviors that support philanthropy, inclusion, and service.
- Occasional evening or weekend availability for donor events and CFSAsponsored activities is required. Infrequent travel, typically in the Southern Arizona area will be necessary.
